

Cub Pack 310C Holds Car Derby

Cub Pack 310 C Harbor District held its first Pine-wood Derby last Thursday at Lincoln School.

The model cars, designed and carved by the cubs, were raced on an incline track.

Cars were weighed in by Cubmaster Charles Mashburn, started by Andy Foster, and judged by Bill Spicer, Kenny Matayoshi, Ken Miller, and Ich Yanagihara.

Fastest car was won by Randy York, with David Miller second in a field of 29 entries.

Most original prize went to Leonard Kallok for his Bumble Bee, most decorative prize went to Carl Yanagihara, and the best workmanship award was won by Curt Foster.

Another highlight of the meeting was the graduation of Leonard Kallok to scout Troop 198.

Richard Lui was inducted into 310 C as a Bob Cat. A wolf badge was awarded to Henry Von Muegge; Henry Heber received his Bear Pin.

College Chronicle Wins All-American Award

"Your students and faculty are indeed fortunate to be reading one of America's outstanding college newspapers."

This was the summary tribute paid last week to the staff of the El Camino College Warhoop, which received All-American honors from the Associated College Press for the 13th consecutive semester.

In citing the paper for its coverage, balance of news, creativeness, news writing, editorial page, features, sports coverage, front page make-up, headlines, and photography, Judge Duane Andrews also observed, "You display professional news writing capabilities."

The Warhoop was one of three junior college weeklies throughout the nation to win the coveted All-American rating. To secure the award, a total of 3400 points were necessary in the scoring con-
